Remember to look for the answers to the questions.
The pictures may give you a clue where to look!

Albion Villas

St. Mary & St. Eanswythe's Church

The British Red Lion

St. Eanswythe's Pond

German Consulate

1. Follow the footpath towards the Parish Church, keeping Albion Villas on your left.
2. Take the second path to the left which leads into the churchyard.
3. Walk round to the outside of the church and head towards The Bayle.
4. Exit the churchyard onto the Bayle.
5. Head towards The British Lion Public House before turning left and heading down The Bayle.
6. St. Eanswythe's Pond will be on your right as you head down The Bayle. You may have to use your best detective skills to find the answer to the question!
7. Turn left and head past The Battery along the narrow alleyway. Go down the steps at the end. Alternatively go past The Guildhall and turn right along The Parade.
8. Go down the first flight of the Parade Steps and look up at the front of the old German Consulate, or read the panel at the top of the Parade Steps.

Gated alleyway

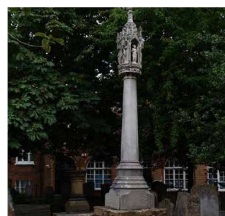

Bail Steps

WWI bomb site

William Harvey plaque

The Town Cross

9. Head back along The Parade and into Bayle Street.

Look for the gated alleyway on your right.

10. Head back along Bayle Street and turn left to go down the Bail Steps. Alternatively, continue along Bayle Street and take the first right down The Old High Street

11. Head to the bottom of the Old High Street and turn left into Tontine Street.

12. Cross over Mill Bay to visit the WWI bomb site, before heading up through Payers Park back to The Old High Street. Turn right.

13. Turn left into Rendezvous Street.

14. Take the second left into Church Street.

15. Head straight on, back into the churchyard and take the left fork. The Town Cross will be on your left. The trail ends here, but visit the church if it is open!

I spy with my little eye....

...Can you find the hidden treasures in the Old Town?
